Don & Jane Good Outstanding Senior 2011

While an undergraduate student at Kansas State University, Amy was a member of the 2008 Horse Judging Team, 2009 Meats Judging Team, 2009 Meat Animal Evaluation Team, and the 2011 Kansas State Academic Quadrathlon Champion Team.

She was also active in numerous organizations including Block & Bridle, Collegiate CattleWomen, National FFA, Public Health Club, the Helping International Students Program and the Alpha of Clovia 4-H Scholarship House.

Amy's interest in international travel led her to participate in a missions trip to Juarez Mexico, a faculty-led equine tour to Ireland and the UK, a faculty-led ag tour to South Africa and a six month International 4-H Youth Exchange (IFYE) to Germany and Switzerland.

Amy's work experiences while at Kansas State included a USDA White House Liason internship, working for the Kansas State Meat Chemistry Lab and working for McPherson County Feeds, Inc.

While at Kansas State, Amy received multiple academic awards, the most prestigious of which included the Robert C. Byrd and Robert J. Dole Public Service Scholar, Kansas State University Putnam and Civic Leadership Scholar and the National Harry S. Truman Public Service Scholar.

Following graduation, Amy plans to pursue a doctorate in veterinary medicine as well as a master of public health at Kansas State University.
