Animal Sciences & Industry

Don & Jane Good Outstanding Senior 2012

While an undergraduate student at Kansas State University, Austin was a member of the 2010 Meats Judging Team, 2011 Livestock Judging Team, and the 2011 Kansas State Academic Quadrathlon Champion Team.

He was also active in numerous organizations including Block & Bridle, College of Agriculture Student Council and the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity.

Austin's interest in international travel led him to participate in a faculty-led beef tour to Canada, and a faculty-led ag tour to China.

Austin's work experiences while at Kansas State included interning for The Maschhoffs in Carlyle, IL; interning for Elanco Animal Health in Greenfield, IN; as a student worker in the Pre-Harvest Food Safety Lab and at the Sheep and Meat Goat Center at Kansas State University; as well as working on his family's cattle ranch in South Dakota.

While at Kansas State, Austin earned multiple awards, most prestigious of which being the American FFA Degree.

Following graduation, Austin plans to work in industry as a swine nutritionist.
