Scenes from K-State Inter-Collegiate Rodeo held in Weber Arena on February 18-20, 2011

2011 K-State Rodeo Queen Brande Iseman with 2010 K-State Rodeo Queen Courtney Hall. (Photo: Beth McQuade)

A competitor rounds the second barrel. (Photo: Ken Odde)

K-State Rodeo Club member, Michael Wimer, competes in the saddle bronc competition. (Photos: Beth McQuade)
Doug Muller, K-State Rodeo Club advisor with Brigadier General Ricky Gibbs, Deputy Commanding General – 1st Infantry Division

The Commanding General’s Mounted Color Guard from Fort Riley performs on Sunday.

The Big Red One Country Band entertains the crowd before Sunday’s performance.

Competitors getting ready for Sunday’s performance.

Excitement in the bull riding event. (Photos: Ken Odde)

Daniel Unruh (front), KSU Rodeo Club member and bull fighter, in action.
(Above) Teamwork in the bull dogging event.

(Left) Julia Kaufman, President of the KSU Rodeo Club

Horse and rider work together in calf roping.

Racing against the clock in goat tying.

Brad Purdue working the bucking chutes.

Audree Gottlob (far left) timing an event.

(Photos: Ken Odde)
Polar Plunge!!

Graduate students (L-R) Chad Paulk, Jeremiah Nemechek and Chris Rude participate in the Polar Plunge to raise funds for Special Olympics Kansas.

(Photos courtesy of Chad Paulk)
Faculty with February birthdays – Ron Pope, Jennifer Bormann, John Unruh and Melvin Hunt – celebrated their combined 219th birthday last week. (Photo: Mishelle Hay)