2010 LMIC Stockman of the Year
Kenny Knight and wife, Tamara Knight were honored at the 40th Annual Stockmen’s Dinner
March 4, 2010

(Photos: Darla Thomas)
Stockmen’s Dinner Featured Speakers

Members of the KSU Academic Quadrathlon Team were recognized. Left to right: Dr. Ernie Minton, Chris Bauerle, Amy Sents, Nicole Rosencutter, Alexandra Olson, Joe Ebert, Fourth and Pomeroy

(Photos: Darla Thomas)
97th Annual Cattlemen’s Day – March 5, 2010

President Kirk Schulz welcomes attendees to Cattlemen’s Day.

Dr. Patrick Michaels, Distinguished Senior Fellow, George Mason University, speaks on “Climate Change: Implications for Agriculture.”

Dr. Ted Schroeder, Kansas State University, Distinguished Professor, Ag Economics, presents “Feeding the World in 2050.”

(Photos: Darla Thomas)
Beef Cattle Research Center
Open House

Garrett Parsons, Manager, and Dr. Jim Drouillard, Professor and BCRC faculty supervisor, (left) proudly display a plaque honoring LMIC members and donors who supported the cattle processing facility renovation.

Dr. Larry Hollis, Professor and Beef Extension Veterinarian, explains the value of post-mortem diagnosis following a real-time necropsy.

Drs. John Jaeger and Justin Waggoner, Beef Systems Specialists, conduct hands-on demonstrations of inexpensive systems for preserving wet distiller’s grains. (Photos: Darla Thomas)
Dr. Tom Taul, KABSU Manager (left) provides an overview of KABSU services and Sharon Tucker, Lab Technologist (right) demonstrates common defects in semen and their impact on bull fertility.

Dr. Sandy Johnson, Extension Specialist (left) and Dr. Jeff Stevenson, Professor and KABSU faculty supervisor (right) demonstrate technologies used for early pregnancy detection. (Photos: Darla Thomas)
Ryan Breiner, Purebred Beef Manager with a gift for the auctioneer.

Willie waits for the sale to begin.

Justin Stout takes bids from a capacity crowd. (Photos: Darla Thomas)