41st Annual Stockmen’s Dinner
March 3, 2011

Dave Kehler, Butler County Extension Agent (far left) with the faculty and staff cooks.
Clayton Huseman

Virgil Huseman and wife, Mary Jo

Stockman of the Year

Dee Likes

Dr. Ken Odde

Gina Miller

Richard Wilcke
Ten hours earlier... faculty and graduate students prepare the dry-aged steaks for Stockmen’s Dinner.
98th Annual Cattlemen’s Day
March 4, 2011

(Left) Dr. Glynn Tonsor’s “Beef Outlook” is live-streamed to Weber Arena.

Panel members (L-R) Tom Gross, KS Dept. of Health & Environment, Tom Moxley, Rancher, Mike Collinge, Rancher, Carol Blocksome, K-State Research Scientist, address the issue of Flint Hills Smoke Management with a large crowd in 125 Weber Hall.

Dr. Jeff Davidson, Moderator
Charlotte Bruna and crew keep the registration table running smoothly.

A large number of graduate student research posters were on display in Weber Arena.

Lori Fink visits the Kansas Beef Council booth.
Open-House Sessions

Testing for Trichonomiasis in Herd Sires
Dr. Meredyth Jones, K-State Vet Med, and Dr. Tom Taul, KABSU.

Using Post-Mortem Examination to Improve Herd Management
Dr. Larry Hollis performs a real-time necropsy at the Beef Cattle Research Center.

Does Pain Management Pay?
Dr. Lily Edwards discusses new technologies at the Beef Cattle Research Center.
34th Annual Legacy Bull & Female Sale
March 4, 2011

Members of the 1966 Livestock Judging Team (L-R) Virgil Huseman, John Meetz, and John Nagle with their former coach, Dr. Calvin Drake.

Dr. Dave Nichols introduces two groups of students from the Livestock Sales Management class before the sale.
A large crowd was on hand despite the chilly weather.

Willie and Virgil.

Ready to bid.

Debi Norton, Graphic Arts - Topeka, with Dave Nichols.

Checking out the catalog.

Photos: Darla Thomas