

Leah Scholz

Kansas State University
Animal Sciences & Industry
Don & Jane Good Outstanding Senior 2018

While an undergraduate student in Animal Sciences and Industry at Kansas State University, Leah was a member of the 2017 National Champion Meat Animal Evaluation Team and the 2017 Reserve National Champion Livestock Judging Team. She was named an All-American.

Leah was also active in several campus organizations, including Block & Bridle, Collegiate Farm Bureau and K-State's Transfer Ambassador Program. She served as Block & Bridle corresponding secretary and reporter.

Prior to coming to K-State, she attended Allen County Community College, where she was active on the livestock judging team, served as president of the Collegiate Farm Bureau and was an executive officer of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

During the summer of 2017, Leah interned in Argentina for the El Volcan Ranch during the Palermo Exhibition. She was asked to return in 2018 for an extended period — to help at the ranch prior to Palermo and then stay through the show.

Leah has accepted a position with AgriBeef. After graduating in May 2018, she will relocate to Parma, Idaho, to begin the management trainee program at the Boise Valley Feedyard.
