

Dr. Joel DeRouchey Academic Awards

- ASABE Blue Ribbon Award for Outstanding Educational Aid - "Designing a Bud Box for Cattle Handling". 2019
- National ASAS Outstanding Extension Specialist Award. 2018
- Excellence in 4-H Volunteerism Award, North Central Region. 2018
- Midwest ASAS National Pork Board Innovation Award. 2016
- K-State College of Agriculture Undergraduate Commencement Speaker. December 13, 2013
- Vance Publishing Corporation's inaugural "40 Under 40 in Agriculture". 2013
- Pig Management Award, International Pig Veterinary Society Congress. 2012
- South Dakota State University Distinguished Young Alumni Award. 2010
- K-State Research and Extension Team Award for "Swine Nutrition Extension Team". 2010
- Midwest ASAS Outstanding Young Scientist Researcher Award. 2010
- South Dakota State University Little International Honored Agriculturist of the Year Award for the "Fred and Joan DeRouchey Family". 2010
- "Gerald A. Miller Outreach Team Award" for the Heartland Animal Manure Management Water Quality Team at the NIFA National Water Conference. 2010
- USDA CSREES Partnership Award for Mission Integration for the "Integrated Watershed Restoration and Protection Strategies (WRAPS) Team at K-State". 2009
- K-State Research and Extension Mentoring Award of New Faculty. 2009
- K-State Research and Extension Team Award for the "Heartland Regional Water Quality Coordination Initiative Team". 2009
- Midwest ASAS Outstanding Young Scientist Extension Specialist Award. 2008
- K-State Research and Extension Team Award for "Water Quality Specialists". 2007
- Animal Sciences and Industry Outstanding PhD Student, Kansas State University. 2000
- Animal Sciences and Industry Outstanding M.S. Student, Kansas State University. 1998
- Animal and Range Sciences Outstanding Senior Award, South Dakota State University. 1997