JOHN SMITH NAMED EXTENSION DAIRY SPECIALIST

Dr. John F. Smith will join the Department of Animal Sciences & Industry as Extension Specialist, Dairy Science July 18, 1995. Dr. Smith has held a similar position at New Mexico State University since 1989. His major responsibility at KSU will be reproductive physiology programs.

Raised near Jefferson, Iowa, Dr. Smith received his B.S. and M.S. degrees at Northwest Missouri State University. His Ph.D. in reproductive physiology was awarded from the University of Missouri.

John and wife, Debra, and daughter, Jordan, will move to Manhattan in late June. He will be assisting at the Kansas Dairy Expo and is anxious to meet Kansas dairy farmers.
