K-State Animal Sciences Leadership Academy
Premier Program
Application Information

   Youth who have previously attended the K-State Animal Sciences Leadership Academy are invited to apply for the K-State Animal Sciences Leadership Academy Premier Program hosted by the Kansas State University Department of Animal Sciences and Industry and sponsored by the Livestock and Meat Industry Council. The goal of this academy will be to further develop young leaders within the livestock industry and prepare them for a successful future in this field.

   The three-day session will focus on increasing knowledge of Kansas' livestock industry, as well as building participant's leadership skills. Students will be selected to participate based upon educational, community, and agricultural involvement, as reflected through an application process.

Applications Requirements:
- Participants must be 18-20 years old at the time of the event (through July 15).
- Applications must be postmarked by May 15, 2019.
- Delegates must be able to participate in the entire academy and attend all conference sessions.
- Students must complete all areas of the application. The spacing of the application for responses must be unaltered and extra attachments will not be accepted.
- The application should be paper clipped including application form and resume.
- Applicants will receive an email confirmation that their application has been received.
- Please allow two weeks for review and selection after the May 15 deadline.

Sponsorship:
The academy is sponsored by the Livestock and Meat Industry Council (LMIC). Total cost to attend is $500 per student. If selected students will pay only $50 of this fee, with the balance provided by LMIC. Students are responsible for transportation to and from the Premier program and any lodging that may be needed before or after the event.
