This clinic is designed for county fair board members, extension agents and volunteers involved in local livestock fair management and leadership. This professional development opportunity consists of a forum for open communication targeted toward individuals working with livestock at their local fairs. K-State faculty and staff will facilitate discussion directly related to livestock activity, which impacts all Kansas county fairs. The program is geared towards the input and participation of county fair board members, superintendents, and extension agents. The program has been divided across two evenings, so different topics will be covered each night. The sessions will be recorded so those who are not able to attend may watch at their convenience.
